

Justin Lennox and the Brush of Many Colors

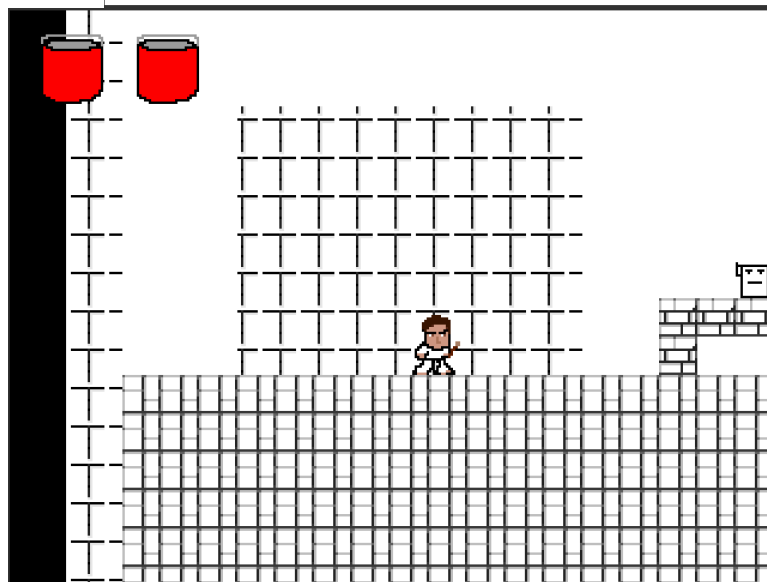

Justin Lennox and the Brush of Many Colors follows the epic struggle between Justin Lennox (me), and the evil T-Corp. T-Corp has sucked all of the paint out of the world, and it's up to Justin to restore it. Justin can paint his world using R for Red, G for Green, or B for Blue. These each paint the world in a different way. He can also collect easels to unleash a powerful prism-color attack. Justin can swim in water by pressing the down arrow, fly once he collects wings by pressing the up arrow, climb ladders by pressing up, and swing left and right on them by pressing left and right. It is up to you to make it to the top of the T-Corp skyscraper and put a stop to their evil ways. Watch out for T-Totems and the T-Corp businessmen though! Paint them to restore their happiness and make them harmless. If you get hit, you'll lose paint out of your paint bucket. Lose both buckets of paint and you'll get a Game Over!
